SENATE
Final Reading
March 13, 2023

1 WHEREAS, An old-school farmer and rancher, Senator Soash
2 began reading about political issues and rehearsed speeches on his tractor,
3 accompanied by his daughter, Stacey Poulsen, with whom he shared a
4 love of foreign language and travel, as his primary audience and source 5 of feedback; and

6 WHEREAS, Senator Soash became involved in party politics as 7 a Democrat and worked as a precinct committee person before running 8 for office; and

9 WHEREAS, Senator Soash was first elected to the Colorado
10 Senate in 1976, where he served from 1977 to 1984, representing the 11 citizens of district 31 for the first seven years and district 8 for his final 12 year in the Colorado Senate; and

13 WHEREAS, During his time as a member of the Colorado General
14 Assembly, Senator Soash served on the Agriculture, Natural Resources, 15 and Energy committee; the Business Affairs and Labor committee; the 16 Local Government committee; and the Transportation committee; and

17 WHEREAS, Representing Colorado's leading coal mining district, 18 Senator Soash introduced multiple bills on mine safety, both for 19 underground mines and for surface mines, and saw water storage in 20 Colorado as a similarly vital issue for the Western Slope; and

21 WHEREAS, Former Denver Mayor Wellington Webb dubbed
22 Senator Soash "The Cowboy" and knew Senator Soash to be a
23 straight-shooter with a unique ability to analyze city issues and to work 24 with other legislators from rural districts; and

25 WHEREAS, In this spirit, Senator Soash was quoted by the Three 26 Wire Winter, a Steamboat Springs High School student magazine that 27 captured the oral histories of prominent Routt county citizens between 28 1976 and 1988, as saying, "Any time life is filled with problems, it's 29 challenging, but that's what makes it so fascinating because we get to 30 solve or get a hand in finding a solution to life's quandaries"; and

31 WHEREAS, Senator Soash is remembered by many, including his 32 children, as a gregarious public speaker who could deliver an "off the 33 cuff" speech, sounding natural and unrehearsed while skillfully conveying 34 his points; and

1 WHEREAS, Senator Soash was incredibly proud of his 2 involvement in the building of parks, schools, and reservoirs; and

3 WHEREAS, After his years as an elected official, Senator Soash
4 worked as a lobbyist for the city and county of Denver, RAG American 5 Coal, Phelps Dodge Corporation, the Intermountain Rural Electric
6 Association, and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, 7 among others; and

8 WHEREAS, As a member of the Capitol's lobbying crowd,
9 Senator Soash continued to be a well-respected fixture at the Capitol, 10 focused on solving problems and supporting unions; and

11 WHEREAS, Senator Soash was a life-long practicing Catholic and 12 attended Mother of God Catholic Church in Denver, as well as a life-long 13 Denver Broncos fan, enjoying games as a season ticket holder throughout 14 his adult life; and

15 WHEREAS, In his free time, Senator Soash loved working on the 16 Soash Centennial Ranch, which ranch earned the state "centennial"
17 designation signifying one hundred years in operation, and is remembered
18 by many, including his sons, Richard Jr. and Nick, as having a legendary 19 sense of humor; and

20 WHEREAS, Senator Soash was preceded in death by his parents 21 and his beloved wife, Suzy Soash, who passed away in 2013; and

22 WHEREAS, Senator Soash is survived by his two sisters, Maxine 23 and Barbara; his children, Curtis, William, Richard Jr., Josephine, Stacey, 24 and Nick; and several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and 25 great-great-grandchildren; now, therefore,

26 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Seventy-fourth General
27 Assembly of the State of Colorado:

28 That, in the death of Senator Dick Soash, the people of the state of 29 Colorado have lost a devoted public servant and an outstanding citizen,
30 and that we, the members of the Senate of the Seventy-fourth General
31 Assembly, pay tribute to Dick Soash for his years of dedicated public 32 service and do hereby extend our deep and heartfelt sympathy to the 33 members of his family.

1 Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Memorial be sent to 2 Senator Soash's sisters, Maxine Cornwell and Barbara Greffenius; his 3 children, Curtis Soash, William Soash, Richard Soash Jr., Josephine
4 Pacheco, Stacey Poulsen, and Nick Soash.
